BIO FOR CHAT 'N' CHILL - FULL LENGTH

Chat 'N' Chill, a volleyball beach bar and grill, is an international playground for those seeking adventure and those loving the sun, sand and sea. Boaters, yachties and visitors come worldwide to enjoy the casual laid back atmosphere, menu of grilled island foods, tropical drinks, 6 regulation volleyball courts and over 1000 feet of pristine white sand beach where shoes are never required.

Chat 'N' Chill was created and built by Kenneth D. Bowe (also know as KB), a native Exumian. After receiving his MBA in finance and economics from The University of Chicago in 1973, he went to work for a prestigious bank in Chicago. As a researcher in corporate finance, KB discovered future trends in leisure vacations would be in the areas of power yachts and sail boating. With this vision, KB purchased the land back in 1980 and continued to permit the cruisers organizing the George Town Cruising Regatta and Beach Church to use the volleyball courts and picnic area to hold their daily volleyball games and weekly events...which is still in place today. During KB's travels to Europe and Asia, he developed the concept for the design. KB built Chat 'N' Chill with his own hands along with his good friend and local artisan, David Smith, and opened the doors in 1998 to serve the visiting 400-800 winter boats that make George Town's Elizabeth Harbour their home port each year from November to May ...and for some even year around. KB says, "We're not just food, drinks and a beach, Chat 'N' Chill is an authentic 'out island'* experience that we are committed to being memorable; com see for yourself how we make your life 'Better in The Bahamas'".

Chat 'N' Chill is one-of-a-kind. Chat 'N' Chill is the most unique volleyball beach bar and grill in the West Indies where many consider it a great meeting place. Our clientele are diversified and inclusive of winter and local residents, many ex-pats that call Exuma home, as well as hotel guests who are looking to enjoy an island experience within an island experience that is distinctively "out island". The draw to Chat 'N' Chill is the cool mix of nationalities and experiences of its guests in unpretentious, simple surroundings and natural landscape. Guests often leave a business card, shirt, hat or some other "little bit" of themselves to claim their mark and join the many thousands of others that have discovered this little, unspoiled island paradise.

Chat 'Chill now operates a daily Stocking Island Adventure tour from Emerald Bay's Four Seasons Resort at Great Exuma, Grand Isle Villas and The Marina at Emerald Bay. Chat 'N' Chill is also home to a variety of special and corporate events including beach parties, bonfires, teambuilding events, volleyball competitions and much more. It's "out island" location is the perfect venue that feels like "a world away" to host a Bahamian-style event or any beach theme party. *Out-Island: a term also commonly known as the Family Islands is defined as every island outside of the most populated islands in The Bahamas-Grand Bahama (Freeport) and New Providence (Nassau)/Paradise Island, which has come about due to the fact that the two big islands are the center of population and commerce and have been the focus of international attention.
